Hand-made cards by Ella Noble, a graduate of Dundee College of Art. Ella uses quality card for all her greetings cards, which are cut by guillotine and have apertures cut with a hand punch. Die-cut envelopes are provided with all cards, which are supplied in sealed polypropylene bags, to ensure that they reach you in best condition.

Select from the catalogue and quote the relative reference numbers for your order so that Ella can provide you with a quote for what you want. Just send an email with references and quantities required. All enquiries are welcome, from a single card to multiple orders.

And if you can't find something to suit your needs or would like to order something special, why not give Ella a call and discuss your requirements. She'll be pleased to provide the card or ceramic piece that you are looking for.

Hand-made ceramics by Ella Noble, a graduate of Dundee College of Art. Ella has had experience of throwing in Belgium, the highlands of Scotland and production throwing in Eire.

Commissions include business stationery, wedding stationery - and teapots, cups and saucers and cracker motifs for Billy Connolly's 50th birthday party!

Ella has created a range of earthenware ceramics for you that are attractive, fun and functional.

Select from the catalogue and quote the relative reference codes for your order so that Ella can provide you with a quote for what you want. Just send an email with references and quantities required. All enquiries are welcome, from a single pot to multiple orders.
